LILLIAN PERKINS MORSE SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship, in the amount of $500, will be awarded annually to an area high school senior who meets the following criteria:

- Good academic standing
- Commitment to theater and other public service
- Involvement with the Waynesboro Players
- Plans to continue in theater or a related field in college

The candidate will submit the following to the Waynesboro Players:
Letter of intent including academic, theatrical, and public service achievements; two recommendations; GPA and High School Transcript.

In March 2002, the Waynesboro Players established the Lillian Perkins Morse Scholarship Fund to benefit students who will be pursuing an interest in the performing arts through higher education. Lillian was a champion to young people. She founded several area children's theater groups and always provided many opportunities for high school aged students to participate in community theater productions.
Your contribution will help to ensure its continuation. Again, checks may be made payable to: Waynesboro Players, Inc.
